POSSIBLE PROPERTY SALE MEETINGS

A "town hall" meeting has been planned for Sunday evening, July 27, at 6:00pm in Heritage Chapel and Wednesday evening, July 30, at 6:30pm in Wise Chapel. The Church Board will be updating interested persons on the possible sale of the west parking lot across 5th Street. All are invited.

NEW WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

A new study begins August 6 at 6:00pm in Reed 100. "We walk by faith, not by sight" (2 Corinthians 5:7) is much more than a beloved scripture for Jennifer Rothschild, the author of our next study, "Walking by Faith: Lessons Learned in the Dark"; these words are a reflection of how she lives. At the age of 15, Jennifer was diagnosed with a rare, degenerative eye disease that would eventually steal her sight. Her dreams of becoming a commercial artist and cartoonist faded. Join us in this seven week study and bring a friend! The cost of the book is $12

HOMECOMING SUNDAY, AUGUST 10

Join us for a special Homecoming celebration Sunday, August 10. The 9:00am Celebration Worship service begins the celebration with special guest preacher, former NFCN Youth Pastor, Rev. Doug Runyan. Rev. Runyan currently serves as the Lead Pastor at Oklahoma City Trinity Church of the Nazarene. Following Sunday School, an all-church potluck with special music will be held in the Fellowship Hall. Make plans to be with us!

SOFTBALL GAMES

Continue the Homecoming fellowship on Sunday, August 10 at Two Rivers Park. Come out and watch and fellowship with the NFCN softball team, their families, as well as all the other teams that we are playing. Games will begin at 6:00pm with the last one being played at 9:00pm. We will be providing FREE hotdogs, waters, and chips for everyone that comes out. This will be a great time to watch some awesome softball, fellowship with your church family, as well as fellowship with the other teams and their families!
